

BBH U.S. Government Money Market Fund

Fund Fact Sheet / 1Q 2023

PRINCIPAL STRATEGY AND OBJECTIVES<sup>1</sup>

The U.S. Government Money Market Fund ("the Fund") seeks to achieve a high level of income consistent with the preservation of capital and the maintenance of liquidity. The Fund's investment portfolio consists of short-term U.S. Treasuries and securities issued by U.S. government agencies or government-sponsored enterprises and repurchase agreements<sup>2</sup> fully collateralized by such instruments. The Fund is designed for investors who seek an investment that provides minimal risk and stability of principal at the expense of higher potential returns.

The U.S. Government Money Market Fund is currently available only to investors whose assets are held in custody of Brown Brothers Harriman & Co.

INVESTMENT CRITERIA

We evaluate environmental, social and governance (ESG<sup>3</sup>) factors as part of our investment research process to help us effectively assess the long-term sustainability and durability of our companies and credits.

Risks

The fund is subject to the risk of changing economic, political or market conditions, credit risk, regulatory risk and the risk of interest rate fluctuations. Asset allocation decisions, particularly large redemptions, made by BBH&Co., whose discretionary investment advisory clients make up a large percentage of the Fund's shareholders, may adversely impact remaining Fund shareholders.

<sup>1</sup> There can be no assurance that the Fund will achieve its investment objectives.

<sup>2</sup> A type of short-term borrowing for dealers in government securities. The dealer sells the government security to investors, usually on an overnight basis, and buys them back the following day.

<sup>3</sup> Considering ESG factors as part of investment decisions may result in the fund forgoing otherwise attractive opportunities, which may result in lower performance when compared to funds that do not consider ESG factors.
