The yield quotation more closely reflects the current earnings of the Money Market fund than the total return quotation. The Investment Adviser has voluntarily agreed to waive fees and/or reimburse expenses in order to maintain the minimum daily yield of the Fund at 1 basis point (0.01%). This waiver can be changed at any time at the sole discretion of the Investment Adviser.

Past performance does not guarantee future results, and current performance may be lower or higher than the past performance data quoted. For performance current to the most recent month-end please call 1-800-625-5759.

Portfolio holdings and characteristics are subject to change. Totals may not sum due to rounding.

Risks

Basis Point (bp) is 1/100th of a percent (0.01% or 0.0001).

A repurchase agreement (repo) is a type of short-term borrowing for dealers in government securities. The dealer sells the government security to investors, usually on an overnight basis, and buys them back the following day.

The fund is subject to the risk of changing economic, political, or market conditions, credit risk, regulatory risk, and the risk of interest rate fluctuations. Asset allocation decisions, particularly large redemptions, made by BBH & Co., whose discretionary investment advisory clients make up a larger percentage of the Fund's shareholders, may adversely impact remaining Fund shareholders.

There can be no assurance the Fund will achieve its investment objectives.

Shares of the Fund are distributed by ALPS Distributors, Inc. and is located at 1290 Broadway, Suite 1000, Denver, CO 80203.

Brown Brothers Harriman & Co. ("BBH"), a New York limited partnership, was founded in 1818 and provides investment advice to registered mutual funds through a separately identifiable department (the "SID"). The SID is registered with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940. BBH acts as the Fund Administrator and is located at 140 Broadway, New York, NY 10005.
